Personal Information

Hellllooo World! I am Selaelo and I learned early on in life that coding would be the BEST DECISION OF MY LIFE. After learning basic HTML in high school, I got inspired to learn more.

My coding journey began when I discovered and learned languages such as Python, JavaScript, NodeJS, etc Apart from coding, I enjoy:

- Playing Chess
- Reading
- Drawing
- Basketball & Parkour

What I Can Offer:

- Soft and technical skills
- Great team player who will make your life easier.
- Communicate in plain English (no jargons!)
- Ambitious yet egoless personality
