Selaelo Sebola

Personal Information

Helllllooo World! I am Selaelo and I am a final year Software Development student at Belgium Campus ITVersity. I learned early on in life that coding would be the BEST DECISION OF MY LIFE as I got exposed to basic HTML in 2017 when I did Computer Application Technology (CAT) subject in matric, and I got inspired to learn more.

During my gap year in 2018, I self-taught myself coding and learned basic Python and JavaScript languages.
